

Spring 2017

Programs for Adults Anacortes Public Library Free & all welcome

1220 Tenth St. * 360-293-1910 * library.cityofanacortes.org

MUSIC

Hitting on the Six: a History of Jazz Guitar
Tues., April 4, 7pm

Guitarist Steven Dolmatz discusses the history of jazz guitar from its beginning in the 1920's to today's practitioners, illustrated with recordings.

Sunday Jazz

2nd Sunday, 2 – 3:30pm

April 9, The Overtones, at the Library

May 14, Holly Pyle & Dmitri Matheny Jazz

Quintet, at the Library

June 11, Ranger & the "Re-Arrangers," at the Heart of Anacortes

Free, live concerts; see jazzatthelibrary.com.

Swing Dance at Senior Center

Sat., April 15, 7pm

A'Town Big Band plays energetic dance music at the Senior Center, 1701 22nd St. Free; sponsored by the Library Foundation's Manieri Endowment.

History of Jazz Saxophone

Fri., May 19, 7pm

In this Great Jazz Instrumentalists series presentation, local musician John Anderson highlights the history & development of jazz sax.

Acoustic Music in the Library

3rd Sunday, 2 – 2:30pm

3rd Tuesday, 6 – 6:30pm

Soft background music performed on an acoustic instrument. Experienced musicians interested in playing should inquire at the Circulation Desk.

TECHNOLOGY

TechWise Tuesdays

Tuesdays, April 4 – May 30, 10am – 12noon

Drop in with your mobile device or laptop for hands-on help with library ebooks & audiobooks, computer basics, new software or internet applications, Microsoft IT Academy & more.

Breaks June – Aug.; resumes Sept. 5

SPRING FILM SERIES

Fridays, April 7-28, 7pm

An eclectic line-up of movies, from classic to contemporary, selected & introduced by Movie Man Nick Alphin.

April 7, Show Boat (Approved, 1951, 108 mins.)

April 14, Gravity (PG-13, 2013, 91 mins.)

April 21, Grand Hotel (Passed, 1932, 112 mins.)

April 28, Sully (PG-13, 2016, 96 mins.)

LIBRARY CLOSING DATES

* Apr. 16, Easter Sunday

* May 29, Memorial Day

SPECIAL PROGRAM

Celebrating the Poetry of WA 129

Sun., April 30, 2pm

Poet Laureate Tod Marshall & other poets present selections from WA 129, an anthology of poems gathered from the people of Washington.

BOOK CLUBS

Silent Book Club

Mon., April 3, May 1 & June 5, 5-6:30pm

Meet upstairs by fireplace

The Silent Book Club meets just to read, with no assigned books. We're starting with 3 monthly meetings & will continue if interest warrants.

Library Book Club

4th Monday, 7pm

April 24, Author Month: Pearl Buck

May 22, The Nightingale, Kristen Hannah

June 26, The Girl Who Wrote in Silk, Kelli Estes

APRIL PROGRAMS

Feng Shui Tips for Home & Business

Wed., April 5, 7pm

Feng Shui Master Educator Caroline P. BorNei discusses how to harmonize our living & working spaces using the principles of Feng Shui.

Art, Therapy, Wellness: Art of Journaling

Wed., April 12, 7pm

Anacortes Arts Commission members explore how the art of writing & drawing affect our health & minds.

Whose Lane Is It?

Sharing the Road with Cyclists

Wed., April 19, 7pm

League of American Cyclists Certified Instructor Kim Sharpe discusses how to navigate roads safely when people on bikes are present.

Get the Best Shots from Your Camera

Wed., April 26, 7pm

Photographer Tony Locke offers pointers on how to get the best shots from your camera in time for your spring & summer fun.

MAY PROGRAMS

Travel by Canal Boat in France

Wed., May 3, 7pm

Veteran canal boaters Steve & Dian Jahn share their latest trip — the Bourgogne area of France during the wine harvest.

Art, Therapy, Wellness: Art of Laughter

Wed., May 10, 7pm

Anacortes Arts Commission members explore how the art of laughter, always the best medicine, affects our health & minds.

Mr. Tambourine Man

Wed., May 17, 7pm

Musician & entertainer Paul "Buck" Stierle returns with this popular performance of Bob Dylan's early years, 1962-1974.

Music from Hungrytown

Wed., May 24, 7pm

Renowned folk duo Hungrytown performs a selection of their timeless compositions, all with gorgeous vocal harmonies.

Volunteering to Improve Small-Holder Agriculture Worldwide

Wed., May 31, 7pm

WSU Horticulture Professor Carol Miles discusses her trip to Mozambique where farmers face scarce water & temperatures in the 100s.

JUNE PROGRAMS

Create Your Impossible

Wed., June 7, 7pm

Life coach & speaker Katie Morgan explains how to make clear decisions, create a vision of what you want & move past what feels impossible.

Art, Therapy, Wellness:

Music Soothes the Soul

Wed., June 14, 7pm

Anacortes Arts Commission members explore how the art of music plays an important role in the health of our bodies & minds.

San Diego to the Sea of Cortez:

An Ocean Teeming with Life

Wed., June 21, 7pm

Writer & translator Jane Billingham describes a 10-day boating trip focused on marine mammals & birds around the Baja Peninsula in Mexico.