Reason for Fee Review

Agreement and Signature

By submitting this application, I understand appeals must be received within two weeks of the returned bank item fee / water service fee being paid. Please note that only one appeal may be submitted per customer / per account. My appeal will go through a comprehensive review process, including the history for the account and the customer. Credits are not guaranteed.

For City of Anacortes utility billing customers: No cash refunds will be issued. If a credit is approved by the City Council, a credit for the paid amount of the returned bank item fee / water service fee will be applied to the account that received the fee. The credit may take up to four billing cycles to appear on the account.
