Second Place at Stake As A.H.S. Aims for Tourney Bid

She Moves Open Second Round of 1953 Season With Important Local Battle

Anacortes moves into the second half of its first and began basketball schedule here this week with an opening game in the city against Floyd. The Panthers are off to a 2-0 start and will be looking to continue their winning streak.

BAND PLANS POLIO MARCH

Floyd Panthers

Band plans Polio March

The Anacortes Band plans to participate in the Polio March with a special Polio March Marching Band. The band will be led by their director, Mr. Smith, and will perform a Polio March theme song.

PACIFIC BAY

High School plans for the Polio March include a special Polio March performance by the Pacific Bay Jazz Band. The band will play a Polio March-inspired composition to raise awareness for the cause.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1953, A. H. S.

When in the course of school events; it becomes necessary for the Senior Class to dissolve the educational bonds which have connected it to the other classes, and to assume the duties of citizenship for which their school life has prepared them; a decent respect to the opinion of the other classes requires that they should transcribe this history leading up to their graduation.

We, the Senior Class of 1953, entered the halls of A.H.S. in the fall of 1950, feeling a bit apprehensive but eager to begin our higher education. Our class congress elected Mr. Veal and Miss Carter as sponsors; Gerald Guthrie, President; Donna Haner, Vice-President; Doris Jorgensen, Secretary-Treasurer; Kathleen Heilman, Representative; to govern us during our first session of school. Kay Graham was elected Home-Coming Queen for 1950.

As Junior statesmen, we began our session by electing Mr. Veal and Mrs. Beard our sponsors; Sylvia Stewart, President; Joe Suryan, Vice-President; Kay Graham, Secretary-Treasurer; Andy Rakaczky, Representative. Donna Haner was our Home-Coming Princess and Kathy Heilman was the Valentine Sweetheart. To climax our second session we presented, "The Right Mr. Wright," a comedy play.

Taking our honored places as Senior statesmen, we chose Mr. Veal and Miss Ringman as our sponsors. For our governing body we elected Paul Luvera, Student Body President; Dick Nelson, Class President; Andy Rakaczky, Vice-President; Kay Graham, Secretary-Treasurer; Sandra Allison, Representative. Jeri Irons was our Home-Coming Queen for this final year in school. The highlights of the year were the Senior play, "Caught in the Villains Web," December 9; the Senior Ball, February 21; and Graduation May 26, 1953. For King and Queen of the Senior Ball we elected Andy Rakaczky and Doris Jorgensen; as Princes and Princesses, Gerald Guthrie and Doris Sandvik, Dick Nelson and Carol Card, Jack Wiggins and Kay Graham, Paul Luvera and Jean McLachlan.

And now the time has come for us to depart. This is the thought of all of us graduating seniors, for at last the day of embarking on a whole new world has arrived. As we leave our school days behind, our thoughts will always be directed toward the carefree hours spent in the Halls of the Anacortes High School.

FOOTBALL SEASON

by Wallie Funk

Four straight wins at the outset of the 1952 season, record-breaking crowds and the over-powering Burlington Tigers just about tell the story of football as it concerned Anacortes last fall.

These and the high-scoring antics of junior halfback, Jim Berentson, gave fans their money's worth as Vaughn Weber's gridders tackled a nine-game schedule with 50-50 results.

When the smoke had cleared, Anacortes had won four, lost four and tied one against such formidable opponents as the Ferndale Golden Eagles, unbeaten in sixteen starts prior to their meeting with the Hawks. Burlington, Snohomish and Edmonds.

But the highlight of the year ended at 26-all as Mount Vernon fought the Purgles to a draw in a pulsating battle on Memorial field last October.

Anacortes had to come from behind three times to gain a deadlock, once on an 87-yard kickoff gallop by Jim Berentson and again after a 45-yard TD pass, Don Francini to Nick Petrisch. The latter play came in the final four minutes of the game with Petrisch reeling in a high pitch on the goal line to score the Webers' last six points of the night.

Ferndale reached the end of the victory path here in Anacortes a few weeks earlier as the Hawks pounded out an impressive 26-6 win before a partisan crowd of 2,000 fans.

Attendance came in for its share of attention this fall as the Hawks, working on a four-game win streak at the outset of the season, played before nearly nine thousand fans here in the Port City.

Financially the campaign was a whopping success—the best on record—with receipts reaching the $3,000 mark at the end of five home games.

Twenty-five hundred spectators were aboard for the Snohomish clash, but the outcome was unpleasant for all but a small percentage. The locals went down to their first defeat, 25-13, and never got back on the track.

Except for a well-earned tie with Mount Vernon, Anacortes finished out the season zero for four. They were edged by Marysville and Arlington and they blew all their fuses at Burlington, 57-7.

Jim Berentson ended the season second to Gene Fitzgerald in the scoring column with 92 points and was placed on the all-Northwest League first string. Honorable mention went to Captain Paul Luvera, Nick Petrich and Gale Marrs.

Inspirational and best blocking awards for 1952 went to Frank Taillieu and Gale Marrs.

Basketball Season

Anacortes high school's 1953 basketball team may not have reached the heights attained by some of its more hardy predecessors, but in the record department the Hawks did memorable things.

In finishing their sixth Northwest league cage season in a deadlock with third place Marysville, the Taylors hung up several new marks for future generations.

They became the highest scoring team in AHS history with a total of 1055 points at the end of regular season play, they broke the single-game loop mark with 83 tallies against Edmonds in their last home tint, and twice tied their own record of 26 points in one quarter.

This was accomplished, quite remarkably, with one of the youngest squads to represent Anacortes in many years. Two sophomores, a couple juniors and a lone senior made up the starting five. It was supported by more sophomores and juniors and another senior.

Including non-conference, league and tournament matches, the Taylors wound up their season with 14 wins and 8 losses — a respectable improvement over the previous year.

The Hawks scored their greatest successes in kings-x tilts when they dumped five of six pre-season foes. Anacortes defeated Auburn, Centralia, Oak Harbor and Ferndale in one night stands, and split a home-and-home series with Lynden, third place representative in the 1953 Northwest District tournament.

In league play the Hawks swept both ends of round robin warfare with Burlington, Sedro Woolley and Arlington, divided with Marysville and suffered double losses at the hands of Snohomish and Mount Vernon, one-two finishers in the NWL race for 1953.

Anacortes' hash was settled quickly in the post-season playoffs at Bellingham. The Hawks bowed to Snohomish, 55-42, in their opener and took a ten-count from Marysville, 57-52, a couple nights later.

This year's individual scoring crown was won by Captain Paul Luvera, runner-up to Larry Lunsford in 1952. Luvera caged 221 points to edge out Don Francin and Jim Berenton, who posted 216 and 201, respectively.

Luvera and Francin received honorable mention at the end of the District tournament and the former was awarded the American Inspirational trophy for 1953.
