The Seahawks opened the season in a sea of mud, and started with a bang, downing the Issaquah Indians easily, 20 to 0. The Purple gridders scored five times; but only three showed in the final score.

A blazing start and a stubborn second half defense were major factors in the blasting of the Mountaineers. The Seahawks pushed three touchdowns across in the opening stanza. Final score: Anacortes 26, Mt. Baker 9. The Mountaineers played out the rest of their season undefeated.

Then came the big one. Thirteen long years Anacortes had to be content with waiting until next year, and this turned out to be next year. The Peterson's really slaughtered the Panthers, and the score could have been much worse than the 41-20 count. The game was played before a record home-coming crowd.

Then the game that is always a hard one to lose, the Anacortes-Mt. Vernon tussle. The Seahawks were outplayed in this one, and the Bulldogs deserved to win. Final score: Anacortes 13, Mount Vernon 19.

"We wuz robbed" is an expression that could be used in the game with Marysville. The Hawks lost the league match on a disputed first-half touchdown. The only way the dispute could have been settled was by a Marysville forfeiture, but the win-hungry Tommies forgot the whole affair; as a result the 18-13 defeat went into the record books.

Anacortes' bad breaks turned into Arlington touchdowns as the Seahawks suffered their third straight loss at the hands of the Arlington Eagles. 25-6.
Junior Varsity

After three successive losses the Hawks' chances weren't worth a plugged nickel; but they finally liver up to their early season promise by tying mighty Edmonds, 7-7.

Sweet victory showed her shining face as the Purples routed Peth and Company, 37-6. The six journeys into the end-zone equaled the output against Snohomish. It was nearly ample revenge for the '52' catastrophe: score Anacortes 7, Burlington 57.

The birds met the Waterloos on the Sedro field, as the Cubs ended our season on a dreary note with a 12-12 tie.

Nick Petrish, end, and Chuck Cope, quarterback, were placed on the All-Northwest League first team. Players selected on the All-Northwest second team were: Don Francin, fullback, and Vernon Stone, guard. Stan Sandvik and Nick Petrish shared the Blocking and Tackling trophy while Vernon Stone was presented the Inspirational Award.

Basketball Summary

Anacortes repeated its performance of last season by again coming from behind to tie for the newly-founded Northwest League championship. Because of the new Northwest League which now includes Everett and Lake Stevens, Anacortes played an 18 game league schedule with a record of 15-3, and split a non-conference series with Bellingham. Raiders won here, Seahawks there.

The Seahawks lost to Everett and Mt. Vernon in the first round of league play but avenged those losses in the second round only to lose to Arlington.

The Hawks scored 1137 points in 20 games to reset the scoring record set last year of 1067. Anacortes' 95 points against Lake Stevens was the 72 point margin-of-difference as the Hawks held the Vikings to 23 points, second best in defense in the entire Northwest.

The Seahawks went onto the District Tourney at Everett to have encounters with Everett, Marysville and Arlington while to the North, Mount Vernon, Lynden, Bellingham and Nooksack Valley will battle it out on the Bellingham floor to decide which two teams will represent the Northwest District at the State Tourney.

The Anacortes Second Team, rated one of the best to come out of AHS, recorded an undefeated season. Breckenridge, Higgins and Cark paced their victory skein of 20.
