Violent tyrannical, master and source of life to the northwestern coastline...

The Pacific Ocean

Unrelenting...ebbing, rolling, thundering its way through the straits, becoming

...Puget Sound
...the Sound narrows, waves lap, pound the shore—and the land juts out to take command.
Anacortes.

...the people leave
their mark,
settle—grow—learn.
Where life begins—
the land, the sea, and the people as one.
...and as we live we so learn. At the time when we are neither young nor inexperienced,
but a fusion of both whose bounds hurt.
We shall remember these moments always...
when life
was ours...
so completely young and alive

Graduation—an ending and a beginning.
Our efforts in everyday rehearsal improved our tone and technique for concert playing. We have arranged for exchange concerts with Burlington-Edison and/or Oak Harbor. We also hope to send a small concert group to Longview.
"The Skin of Our Teeth", Senior Play of 1967, carried its audience from the ice age to modern times. Its illustration of the troubles of the human race showed the character and courage of man as he began the creation of the world over and over again.

Showing the most exciting game in the Northwest League the Hawks had their most successful season in ten years. The great desire and team spirit shown by the Seahawks was a tribute to the coaching staff and the entire student body. The hawks were blessed by five all-league selections and many other players on honorable mention.
BASKETBALL
1966-1967
Varsity Baseball 1967

Baseball is a sport which encourages team and individual action. In high school baseball, the two most important ingredients are pitching and hitting, in that order.

At Anacortes, we have a varsity and a junior varsity program that enables every boy that wants to play to participate.

We play a competitive schedule of approximately two Junior Varsity and two Varsity games per week.

Track '67

Although not blessed with an outstanding team, we did have several good individual members. Each track-man has a responsibility to the team and to himself.

Track makes the man.
