JENI TROXEL

If you think you are beaten, you are
If you think you are not, you don't
If you'd like to win but you think you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you will
For out of the world we find
Success begins with a runner's will;
It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you're outclassed, you are
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster boy
But sooner or later the boy who wins
Is the one who thinks he can.

LARRY NELSON
Friends come, friends go;
The loves we know are ever fleeting.

In song and smile, a little while
We sing their kindly greeting.

With warmth and cheer they linger near;
The friends we fondly treasure.

Then, as a day they drift away,
In love we render can measure.

This much we know:
Friends come, friends go.

As all gladness passes,
In sun and shade, in swift parade,
Paint images on meadow grasses.

And though we grieve to see them leave,
In thought we still enfold them.

In memory's net we keep them yet,
And thus can even hold them.

They come, they go — these loves we know.
Life's Tides are ever moving.
But year on year, they still seem near —
So great the power of loving.
