CULTURAL EXCHANGE

ERIC PELLET

Eric came to the United States from Congac, France. He likes Anacortes a lot and thinks it is very pretty. He also thinks that the people are very nice and hospitable. He feels the schools here are much easier than the ones in France. Eric participated in two sports this year, cross-country and wrestling. It has been a pleasure to have Eric at A.H.S.
Marly came from Paris, France. He has been in the United States one year. He likes the geography of Anacortes alot.

Marly's main hobby is music. He plays Bass guitar in a professional band called "Rapid Fire".

Marly said that the European schools are alot stricter and the courses are more specific but have less facilities than A.H.S.

We hope he enjoyed his stay at A.H.S.

HI-Y is involved in many activities this year. They sell programs at games and make Spring Tolo a success. HI-Y is also involved in Youth In Government which takes place in Olympia during the Spring. There they work with students from all over Washington to try to pass bills. It's like a legislature that students run.

COACHES COMMENTS

The 1980 football season was an enjoyable and rewarding year for me personally. It was certainly rewarding to see Anacortes football gain respect within the Northwest League and play consistently competitive football. Even more enjoyable than the success was the opportunity to work with the fine group of Young men we had in the program this year. They worked harder and complained less than any other group I have ever coached and the examples they set will last for many years in the Anacortes Seahawk football program.

COACHES COMMENTS—BOB CREMEANS — COACH
The 1980 season proved to be a tough and interesting one. We touched every aspect of a letics with our ups and Downs, thrilling victor and heart stopping defeats. We surpassed many of our goals and expectations. But above all we will surely miss those nine seniors who through the good and the bad always looked ahead. Good Luck Class of '81!!!

GIRLS’ TENNIS ’80

HANSON’S COMMENTS

The team lived up to all expectations this year by logging a 5-4 season record. Our seniors saw some career best performances and will be greatly missed next year. They not only provided good leadership but helped our younger players develop a sense of sportsmanship and school pride.

Comments

Two words describe the 1980 men’s cross country team: Dedication & determination. This was a dedicated team that ran many miles during the summer and then worked extremely hard during the season. During the pre-season we were not even mentioned as a league or district contender. Team determination, coupled with pride, earned a County Champsionship, 2nd place in league and in districts and an outstanding 4th place in State.

A super team effort!

Campbell's Comments

Led by league and district champion Molly Ostlund and teammate Leigh Slotemaker the 1980 women's team had a very respectable season.

With only 3 girls returning from last year, the "rookies" played an important role on this team. The new comers learned a lot and the team finished 4th in league and District.

Coache's Comments

The team has improved so much from last year.

Mary Clure, Sr. Capt., and Leigh Slotemaker have been the top and most consistent scorers this year. Both were All Arouunds.

Special mention go to Debbie Smith, Linda Burkum, Cathy Caufield, and Kim McDonald who were other All Around competitors not usually varsity on all events but at least competing in all events.

All of the team worked well and can be proud of what they accomplished.

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's Seahawk Basketball Team was noted for its tenacious defense, Fastbreak, and ability to handle pressure. They played with enthusiasm, industriousness, cooperation, and team spirit. With this the team was able to win the Pilchuk Division with a 13-2 record and were Co-League Champions. The Seahawks started 5 seniors. Rich Awes was the league leading scorer, Greg Lowell the league leading assist man, Erik Papritz a tower of strength on the boards and on defense, Mike Harris provided outside scoring and Steve Morris excelled at passing and board play. These seniors along with outstanding reserves Adrian Franulovich and Greg Ford will be deeply missed. Underclassmen, contributed heavily to the success of the Seahawks, Scribner was the best sixth man in the league. Scribner, Turner, Ferguson, Mavar, Hoxie, and Lunsford will provide a fine nucleus for next year's team.

COACH'S COMMENTS

This season has provided its share of laughter and tears, its highs and lows. Many goals met and some lost. It made us stronger both as individuals and more importantly as a team. We have shared with each other a part of ourselves and our lives and we are richer for it.

- COACH BURRILL

COACHES COMMENTS

During the off-season this group of young men worked extremely hard to improve their individual skills. Their work paid dividends this season when they became a powerhouse in the Northwest League.
