September is not only a month for the Seahawks to start off school one year older and, once again, to get their new schedules back into rhythm; but also a month for Mr. Jack Irvin to get into "the flow of things" as the new AHS principal, Reverse.
This year has brought many memorable times that we all were a part of. Yelling for the first touchdown of the year, cheering on our sports in pep assemblies, competing against each other through Homecoming week, supporting our team members and friends, and finally collecting all the dance pictures through the school year. We all need to remember that these years are just the beginning and there's much more ahead. These four years fly by so fast that sometimes we forget to make each moment special. I wish everyone good luck and success in the years to come.

Steve I was visiting from Germany.

I came to the USA in August to learn to speak English and to get a taste of how the American society, the culture, and a high school is. I have, of course, seen slight differences between the Germans and the American culture, especially in attitudes to life and school systems.

When I go back to Germany, I will have one year left in what we call a Gymnasium. It has some similarity to the American high school, but you have more different subjects, and instead of sleeping during classes, we can choose between different roles in the Gymnasium. Each of the brothers received the same role as the one I am choosing, because the school is a role one.

What I have experienced most about Americans is how open people are, especially those I have talked to. I have become a good friend of people who were interested in our culture. I haven't made any plans for my future yet, but someday I would like to come back to America.

We hope your year at A.H.S. will be remembered with fondness.

The football program has many obstacles to overcome before we can reach a consistent level of competitiveness. This year's team faced a great deal of adversity, but through it all I feel a foundation has been set for the future. It is going to take a strong nucleus of young men to build upon this new foundation. Young men who are not afraid to rise and meet the challenge and who are willing to put forth the discipline, effort, courage and commitment it takes to be successful. The few players who remained on the team at the end of this season have taken that step. Now, there must be more who are willing to follow.

Coach Brian Flotes
This football season was a series of highs and lows. The highs were of high hopes and achievements for the season. The lows of course were our losses. The team battled through agonizing problems such as grades and discipline matters, those were our worst losses. Although we put no win in the win column, we fought hard every game and gave it our all. That's what it takes to rebuild a program, it takes a while and patience. I have finished my term as a Anacortes Seahawk, but I'll always be a Seahawk and when this school gets that first win, all the people who've suffered through that string of losses will win. Most important is the numbers, we've got to have the bodies to have the wins. If you're one of those guys who says I'm gonna take a year off, then that's exactly what you miss; a year of practice. I'd personally like to thank Mr. Flones and his assistants for making my senior season worth it.

Captain Micheal L. Petrish

Even though our record didn’t show it, we really had a competitive team. Our major problem was we didn’t have much depth as a football team, also the desire to win wasn’t there! But beside those problems, we had a few who really loved to play for the Seahawks, especially when we have an ex-Seattle Seahawks as a coach! This was a fun year and hopefully in the near future, winning at Anacortes High School will become an epidemic. Good luck in the future Coach Flones, I really enjoyed playing on your team!
