You're sick of hangin' around and you'd like to travel;
Get tired of travlin' and you want to settle down.
I guess they can't revoke your soul for tryin',
Get out of the door and light out and look all around.

Sometimes the light's all shinin' on me;
Other times I can barely see.
Lately it occurs to me
What a long strange trip it's been.

Truckin', I'm a goin' home
Whoa whoa baby, back where I belong,
Back home sit down and patch my bones
And git back truckin' on

Hey now git back truckin' home.

Don't think of where you're going or where you have been,
Let your troubles wash away like a sand castle when the tide comes in.

Let yourself be free
feel complete again,
Go where your soul takes you and let the fun begin.

Let the freedom rush through your body
let it fill your mind,
But don't forget the ones you loved that you left behind.

The sun sets on another day. He turns to look back down the road of his life.
His memories from the past surround him;
the happy moments and the sad,
the times he felt secure
and the times he felt alone.
He holds on to his memories;
for they have made him who he is today.
But then he looks forward again,
down the road leading off into the future.
The territory is unknown to him,
and that is what leads him on.
The not knowing. The wondering.
The wanting for life to go on.
So he leaves the safe, familiar place of his youth, and moves on.
But he takes his memories with him.

Dedicated to: Emily, Tara, Sarah, and Megan

Friends forever thats the way
Friends forever I hope we'll stay
My four best friends, thats what you'll always be
Our hearts will be together eternally
In time we'll go our separate ways
But we'll always remember the good of days
I'll always remember each individual smile
I'll take it with me mile by mile
We've been through a lot together, us five
But we have managed to survive
by this poem I hope you'll see
How much you girls mean to me
I want you to know I'll always be here
To make you smile, or wipe your tear
If you ever need a slap in the face, or a word of praise
Maybe just a hand to hold as you go through your life maze
I'll be here for you in the sunshine
I'll be here for you in the rain
I'll be here for you in laughter or if your in pain.
I'm writing this to let you know
I love you wherever you are and wherever you go.
In live there doesn't have to be any dead ends
Cause a lifetimes not too long, to live as friends.

To those who came before me, To those who fell behind, Watch your step very carefully
Cause love will make you blind Never take a shortcut Always run the mile, Keep your distance from the start, And try to stay away from the end. And watch out for the sayins 'I just want to be your friend' For not all love is good, And not all love is bad, Just hope you'll never look back on The love you once had.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I just wanted to comment on the January 16th basketball game played between Sedro-Woolley and Anacortes in your gymnasium.

It was so nice that some of the students in the cheering section went out of their way by dressin' up just to make us small town folk feel so welcome. Sometimes it's intimidatin' for us to meet up with y'all from the big city but this here wasn't the case.

The ol' "Yee-haw" coming from your cheering section made me durn near wrench my back because I whooped around so fast. For a second there it sounded just like my cousin Billy Bob when we is on a possum stomp out in our back woods. Actually, two of those young straps in the cheering section looked like my Aunt Millie May when she ain't shaved up for a couple a day. For a second I thot I was at one of my family reunions. I half 'spect ed to see biscuits and gravy being served up at that there conseshun stand.

Well, shucks, we'd just like to tip our hats to y'all one last time and we promise that we won't go round shootin' them there seachickens anymore outta respect for you kind folk. We was saddened to hear y'all got a whuppin' for your hospitality t'ward our team, but next time we run across you folks, we'll be sure and share a plug of chaw with y'all.

Hello Mr. Camera
Congratulations, Megan!
"If you want happiness for a day, go fishing. If you want happiness for a year, inherit a fortune. If you want happiness for a lifetime, help someone else."
--Chinese Proverb
From the extremely bashful and shy little girl, you've become a very fine young woman and we love you very much.
Mom, Dad, Wendy, Beth, Chelsea, Johanna and Jakob

Dear Brent,
Thanks for always attempting to do your best. You have consistently, through your actions and behaviors, made us proud of you. Your efforts achieved will undoubtedly make you a successful person in whatever future challenges face you. We are extremely proud of what you have become and thank you for being such a very special person.
Love Mom and Dad

Polly,
You are a loving, caring person. Dream the impossible dream and reach for the stars.
We are proud of you and your accomplishments.
We love you and wish you a successful, healthy and happy future.
Love as always,
Dad, Mom, and Matt

Tia,
Congratulations! You have worked hard all these years. We are very proud of you. You are a kind, warm and intelligent young woman and you bring us so much joy each day. God has blessed you with many talents -- use them to glorify Him. We'll be praying for you as you face the future. Remember Proverbs 3:5&6.
With love always,
Mom, Dad and Bryan

Dear Adrian,
You are a confident, conscientious and delightful young woman who makes a difference! We are very proud of you.
Always remember that just as "the steadfast love of the Lord endures forever," so our love for you will never cease.
Love, Mom

Jeff,
Thank you for being such a wonderful son! I'm so proud of you, and I love you very much.
Love, Mom
To my daughter Francine:

I am very proud of you because of the kind of person you are.
You have intelligence, courage and wisdom. I'm also proud of your independence and your ability to accomplish your goals.
An exciting and fulfilling life is ahead of you. You are someone very special!
Lots of Love,
Mom

Kyle:
You have given us, your parents, the opportunity to see life through your eyes and we have enjoyed sharing it with you. Now as you go out to experience life on your own we hope it will reward and enlarge your hopes and dreams, and live up to your expectations.
We will always be here attached by that lifeline that no matter how tenuous is always there to be used if necessary.
Love, Mom and Dad

Lisa,
We want you to know how proud of you we are!
Through pure determination you have overcome many struggles in your quest for knowledge. From reading lab and Mrs. Bush to the honor roll and running start. Your accomplishments are too numerous to list and we know as you enter adulthood they will continue. Remember to stop and smell the roses as you go on your journey of life. We love you very much and want only the best for you.
Love Mom, Dave, Keri and Ivy

Patrick,
Say hello to a bright future and remember "... to appreciate nonsense requires a serious interest in life". You have so many talents -- so share them with others and always be kind to yourself.
Love, Mom and Dad

To Phil,
I celebrate myself,
And what I assume you shall assume,
For every atom belonging to me as good belongs to you.
What is commonest and cheapest and easiest is Me.
Me going in for my chances, spending for vast returns,
Not asking the sky to come down to my good will,
Scattering it freely forever.
Walt Whitman "Leaves of Grass"
Love Mom and Dad

"We turned around ....
And you were three
We turned around ....
And you were four
We turned around ....
And you were a Young Man
Walking through our door."

Time flew so fast and you brought us so much happiness. We are so proud of the young man you've become.

We love you, Bear.
God bless you.

Sarah,
You have always been the best daughter and sister anyone could ask for. We have the confidence and faith in you that you will succeed in whatever dreams you pursue. The Lord will direct your paths when you look to Him for guidance. Always remember you have our deepest love and support.

Love you, Sissy
Mom, Dad and Sonja

Nichole,
Some things never change, Like our love for you. You have grown into a Woman of integrity and grace. We are proud of all you have Accomplished and become. As you enter this new horizon Remember all you hold in your Heart will be there to guide You through the challenges Ahead. Just as you will Be kept in our hearts Wherever you are.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, John and Bob

My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee. So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths.
Proverbs 3:1-5

Jeffrey,
Thank you for the past 18 years. It's been great! God luck as you leave Anacortes for college and "the real world". Remember we will always be here for you.

Love, Mom and Bill

Dear Tony,
We wish you all the joy, laughter, success and love that you can attain in the rest of your life. We love you.

Mom and Steve

Congratulations
Joe!
Ella Ann,
Yesterday you were a little girl just starting kindergarten. Mom said you were growing up fast and Dad said it would be years yet. Well, those years have passed and the little girl has turned into a beautiful young lady who is graduating from High School this year.
You are the sunshine and light of our every day.
Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Scott,
You have passed a major milestone in your life. With high school behind you and college ahead, we know you continue with the same enthusiasm you've shown thus far. We hope you will remember what got you to this moment: all the people and places you've come to know. Congratulations and best wishes for a future filled with joy and profound satisfaction.
From Mom, Dad and Brian

Dear Summer,
When the Good Lord said "the meek shall inherit the earth", He certainly wasn't thinking of you. Soon, the doors to the next century will swing open and you'll inherit the failures of our generation. So He gave you the 'chutzpah' to meet life's challenges. I think He knew that "meek" just might not cut it. You have the energy, courage to speak, and firm foundation in faith necessary to achieve your goals.
Go with Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Ben!
We know you can and will do anything you set your mind to. May the roads rise with you and the wind be always at your back.
Love, Mom, Dad, and Tristan

Devin --
You bring laughter and sunshine to us and to anyone who is near you; your smile can melt ice. Never lose that ability. We love you and are so proud of you.
Love, Mom and Dad

Jonathan,
You have given our lives much joy.

Your wit, humor, and insight are pathways that will allow you to achieve your goals and dreams in life.
We love you,
Mom and Dad
Eric:

We marvel at how you have grown! May all your adventures be uphill climbs. May you always be a winner. Spiderman would be proud.

Love Mom, Mark, and Brook

Magoo --
You've always been our "Most Awesome Guy". There's never been a dull moment! May all your dreams come true and may your many years ahead be filled with peace, love and joy. Success to you as you leave High School and pave your pathway to the future. Never be afraid to leave the shore to discover new horizons!

Love to you always,
Dad & Mom

May your future hold as much joy as you have given us.

Love Mom and Dad

Amanda,

Congratulations on your many accomplishments. Eighteen years has gone by so fast! You have really become a beautiful young lady, individual and unique. Simply a free spirit, full of love and determination. Oh, and a real spitfire too! Take wing and fly, Amanda, with God as your guide. Remember, have confidence in yourself and to thine own self be true.

We're proud of you.
Love Dad, Mom and Shannah

You have touched many with your sensitive, caring and honest spirit. We are thankful to the Giver of all your abilities and for placing you in our lives. Our prayer is that you continue to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with your God.

We love you.
Mom, Dad and Kim

Brian,

Congratulations! Graduation Day is finally here. It's been a long road -- but you did it! Be proud of your accomplishments -- we are. Go after your dreams and enjoy life. Remember, you will always have our love and support.

Mike,
Through all the years you've kept your heart and sights on Him. You were the first to believe in someone and the last to give up on them. You've grown by leaps and bounds in faith since you were a toddler. A true rock in the foundation. I am blessed to know you as my son, my friend. "It's not the wind nor the gale-- but the set of the sail, that determines the way we go."

Love, Mom

Congratulations, Suzanne.
We are very proud of you and we love you.

Dear Brandon,
No one could have foreseen the mountains you would climb just to reach your senior year. We continue to pray that your great personality and faith help you scale the steep ones to come. Hold your focus on the plaque in your room that says BRANDON -- STRONG IN VICTORY -- For I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the Lord.

Doug,
Congratulations on your accomplishments of the past 18 years. We are very proud of you. We wish you happiness and success in all goals for the future.
With lots of love,
Dad, Mom and Nicole

Tracy,
You are the "Little Peanut" we had so much fun with. Never lose your zest for living. We are so proud of you! Congratulations!
Love, Mom, Dad, Tim and Tara

Kellie,
What a wonderful person you have turned out to be. You are a beautiful young woman and your Dad and I are extremely proud of your accomplishments. You will be beginning a whole new and different life for yourself, and your dreams and goals are within your grasp. Be all you can be and enjoy yourself. Take life one step at a time and don't rush things.
We love you very much, Kellie

Dear Tara,
Congratulations! You have always made us proud to be your parents. Our wish for you is happiness in whatever life gives you. We love you very much.

Love, Mom and Dad

Jessica,
With your big heart and hard work, I know there will be many more fat cats in your future!

Love, Poppa

Chad,
We love you and are very proud of you. It is with much joy and excitement for you, but also a great sadness, that we congratulate you and wish you much love and happiness in your future career. You are a very wonderful person. We will miss you more than you can imagine. Thank you for your first eighteen years.

Love, Mom, Dad and Curt

Stace --
Your wonderful quick smile and your contagious laugh have kept our lives full of love and joy. Your boundless energy and intense zest for life has kept us on our toes. Your generous nature and incredible compassion have kept us humble. With these qualities, success will come your way. Watch out for the "snails" in life.

Thanks for the terrific memories!

Love, Mom, Lee & Rebecca Congratulations, Nate!

Your enthusiasm for life will carry you far. We wish you all the best today and in your many years ahead.

Love, Mom, Dad and Ben
