Dear Dean,

We were so happy to hear about your plans to leave Boston. We hope you make the best of it! I'm sure you will enjoy yourself and find new friends.

love,
Your friend

Dear Dean,

Boy! We are all so excited for you. You've really worked hard for this opportunity. We hope you do what you need to do and make the best of it. Good luck!

Love,
Your twin

Dear Dean,

Don't forget to tell us all the time, ok? We will miss you. You are leaving in a month and we are all so sad. Take care.

Best of luck,

Puck Party '70.
Dear Mom,

I'm about to write you a letter from the first trip to New York City. I've been around this place a few times now, and I've seen so many people and places that I think it's time we go to Alaska. I've heard that it's beautiful there.

Rest of luck in everything. Hope to see you soon. Have a good time again.

Best of luck, Mom.

New York — the most exciting place I know. Have a great time. Love, Mom.
Dear Mr. White,

I heard that a "corney" beach party.

Dearest Dean,

Well how's the old south side maiden? Oh, I'm going to stay in town and wait for you. I'm not kidding now whether to change my plans or not. Oh, in the end of the day, don't forget Column, and don't forget the old openetta days.

I'm surmising of the class of men in the class of '48 saying that I'm glad to be a member of the class of '48.

Yours sincerely,

"Deep Burgers"
Dear Dean

Joe is it about 40

I hope this helps the late letter was for prospect.

I'll try it in 040.

More with a check.

Dear Deans,

"Asking Mat" here.

It has been a pleasure to have had you as a classmate and friend. I owe my part in the "play" to you. You were swell.

You have been more than nice to me and I sure do appreciate it so ak do now.

Remember the fun that we have had together during "play practice." More fun, eh?

Remember me as the

"Southern Belle" from Oklahoma, who lost her accent from "nice fright," eek! a mouse! More fun.

My head now do feel O.K. now.

I will remember you as my classmate of 40.

May success, happiness, and the Best of Luck be with you always.

MODERN YOUTH

Youth is building for the future,
Towers of strength and knowledge new.
Youth is growing, learning working,
No task proves too hard to do.
Youth exalts at each invention,
That impells the modern way.
And revolts at whining critics,
Who'd go back to yesterday.
Youth is ardent,
Youth is hopeful,
Youth's brave banner is unfurled.
With courage, truth and justice,
Youth shall make the modern world.

Dear Ed,

Say when are we going to get together and go to Nantucket dote of fun! You won't be around next year and I probably won't see you for a long time. I hope you have date of fun and don't do anything that I wouldn't do and that certainly won't give you much rope - catch! Be good and I hope to see you around at some lance.

To your friend,

Florence Campbell
Dear Dean,

Well here's wishing you lots of luck and all that stuff in the future. With loads of love.

The senior class of 1940 takes pleasure in dedicating this thirtieth edition of the "Rhododendron" to one who has gained, by his attractive and optimistic personality, the friendship of students and teachers alike.

Mr. Hicklin is known by all his classes and friends as an interesting conversationalist, a versatile humorist, and a competent advisor.

DEDICATION
Dear Deano—

well this is the last test in this place — it would be a lot better if it was something beside French —

Well Deano — it all over for us eh what? — gee we've known each other for a long time — it been a pleasure too — — remember those crazy baseball games against Nelson — what a situation — what fun — they finally Just stopped playing against each other — we sure showed everyone with our gal - basketball team — it's all been plenty swell — and now — student for 1940 —

Dear Paul,

You say I then go clear to the next sheet if I want to, well see about that. I wouldn’t have liked to have been in the Annual this year but I couldn’t be down here and up in Glades at the same time. Remember the Nelson Baseball team and all the fun we had out there.

I guess we’ll feel kinda lost as something when we hear the school bell ring this fall. We’ll get almost there and remember that we sort supposed to be there anymore. Now that we are all through, our fun is all over and the “problems of life” confront us. Even though the turn changes the course, we mustn’t let it worry us, because, even though the class is broken up, sweet memories can help us to remember the keen times. And we surely have had them, haven’t we? Here I am getting serious! I hope you can come down to Seattle and stay soon and then we can get together down there and really “cut a tapestry.” Get it? I needn’t remind you about “eggs,” because you will probably take them by the neck and gently squeeze her tightly. (Not an embrace) In other words, you will choke me, if you get the chance. I really have fun when I come up to Anacortes on account of you. You seem to be so much fun.

When we were “out at the “Green Date” I wish you could have been there too. We’ll go out in Seattle and see some shows and stuff. Well, you can get what I mean anyway, don’t you? It looks like I'm just about ready to end their little "book within your book" and tell I am on a clean page. That means I can't stop here and I better go on. Let's see! What shall I write? Oh look, I'm in the fog and am I dumb! I better take my lessons from Madame La Jongle and find out how to spell gibioudi when the swallows come back. Look, look! what good music does to me! I better quit! It's a good girl and all. Stop! Look! Listen! But I say. Listen first, then look and if there isn't anything coming you won't have to stop! My! My! All my love from on it sick though from cold, cold Alaska. Wish men who love tobacco beat the luckies 2 to 1.

Love, Lena

Oh, just like two birds in a birdbath, sit we take a bath. Gertude just wouldn't.
sit still and let my keep pleading (that doesn’t look right; oh well, you told me to spell it that way.) Oh, my what are we going to do? The last the soup and here Gertie was puttin’ on it. Sinne on her, “Singing in the Park!” Hey, I know somethin’ about a poached egg that I won’t tell anybody. My what was it sayin’ in the pink? (I can’t whistle either, Dear) I should talk! I know you’d like and now I have somethin’ to make fun of. Here’s a little riddle for you:

Of people from N.Y., say New York instead of New York, and people down South say “You all,” what’s wrong with me folks from the North? Figure it out for yourself. That Yuck had knocked the door down. He nearly knocked the door down. I’ve figured it out; I found out what’s wrong with me NORTHERNERS – We’re mute! Will you excuse me while I go out on the sun porch for some air. Yes! I said air. Well, I think it’s time for me to close and run just as fast as I can so that you can’t catch me! Because I’m afraid you got plans for Leona. Unpleasant ones! Leave me to God. He’ll take care of me. Hell now that I’ve did my good deed for today I better come and wipe dishes to get out the good side of you! Wow! See I drew a picture of me too! — Leona

TWENTY YEARS FROM NOW

By Nona Hinshaw and Dorothy Osborne

Erma Veloni—Writes from India that she has taken up snake-charming. It fascinates her (as well as the snakes).

Edgar Schwartz—Is following in Walt Disney’s footsteps, and has just created that new cartoon called “Larry Louse.”

Charles Schneider—Famous orator and lecturer. His favorite topic is, “What the European Wars Have Taught Me,” or “Do You Hicough?”

Carleton Amsberry—Just started up a new soup kitchen near Snoqualmie Falls. He looks very busy inside, stirring the big cauldrons of soup. The neon sign in front reads: “Fall Inn.”

Margaret Thomas—Head of a large manufacturing concern that puts out multicolored hair ribbons by the millions.

Daniel Meagher—Inventor of the doughnut that clips onto the side of your coffee cup.

Louis Weis—Writes the creepiest mystery thrillers on the market. His “The Corpse With The Bloody Nose” was the Pulitzer prize-winner of the year.

Dan Young—A life-guard at Mud Lake, who almost saved somebody’s life last week.

Jeanette Elvebak—Just cleared up the mortgage on her million dollar mansion on Goats Island in Lake Campbell.

28
Jean Giblin—Social worker down in Little Chicago.

Willis Zimmerman—Just got promoted from janitor to office boy in the Anacortes People’s bank.

Howard Millard—That loud-mouthed auctioneer who’s been selling hot-water bottles in Florida.

Velma Knight—Dare-devil motorcycle rider traveling with the Knight, Lite, and Pulltreshade carnival troupe.

Vasilo Demopolis—While exploring Africa with her safari, she discovered a new species of kangaroo—one which has two hip pockets instead of the one in front.

Ulrico Premo—Head of a large construction crew in Egypt. He says he plans to streamline the Great Sphinx.

Ray Separovich—Renowned archaeologist who has just excavated the old Anacortes senior high school. He plans to put the ruins in his scrapbook.

Nona Hinshaw—Just published her tenth volume on “How to Keep Thousand Legged Worms From Getting Bowlegged.”

Wallace Mattson—Invented the medicine chest that not only holds medicine, but applies first aid, and has even been known to chloroform the patient.

Eugenia Gerik—Just won a set of false teeth in a nationally advertised toothpaste contest.

Maxine Brown—Sentimental poetess whose book of verse, “Vultures and a Spring Rainbow,” will be published soon, providing she can find a publisher.

Georgia Young—Was seen at a wayside stand selling razor clams. With every dozen you get a brush and lather free.

Bob LaRue—Seen every afternoon at 2:00 standing nonchalantly by the entrance to the Hotel Ritz. (Incidentally, he’s the doorman.)

Ted Wollertz—He was Hedy LaMarr’s publicity agent, but he got fired because he forgot all about Hedy in trying to make the front page himself.

Jeanne Williamson—She’s running a sandwich shop in Paris with a big bullfrog pond out in back and this sign out in front, “A leg a day keeps the doctor away.”

Katherine Verhoeff Lowman—Associate manager of the Noketish Fish Buyer concern composed of a scow and two paddles.

Margaret Thurston—Proprietor of the “Thirstin’ Drinkin’ Fountain” in the middle of Death Valley.

Elsie Thomson—Has opened an ice cream parlor at Richard E. Byrd’s new post at the South Pole. The Eskimos are wild about her sundaes.

Dear [Name],

How are you? I hope you are doing well. I wanted to check in and see how things are going. I've been thinking about our recent meeting and wondering how you are getting on with the projects we discussed.

I hope you are finding success in your endeavors. Remember to stay focused and work hard. I'm here to support you whenever you need it.

Best,

Dear Dean,

It was awfully nice of you to check my answers in Geometry. Don't forget choir trips, cigarette, and many other things.

Best of luck to you.

COACH BOULTON

In his tenth year on the Anacortes high school coaching staff, Coach Howard Boulton still goes on doing a better job than he did previous years. During his first seven years, he filled the capacities of assistant basketball and football coach, and head baseball coach. Three years ago, he was promoted to head basketball coach; he still holds this position.

The teams Coach Boulton has turned out have been more than satisfactory, his first triumph being in his first year as head coach. He took a team of county champions to the State tournament in which they placed fourth.

Last year he gave us a county championship team, and this year a second place team.

Next year he will try to turn out another of the fine teams which he has built up in the past. Here's to his successful future.

COACH WootEN

Last year's prophecy about Coach Wooten's producing another championship team at A.H.S. came true.

A football team, composed mainly of seniors, won for him the title, "coach of the county co-champions." As well as producing a fine team this year, Coach Wooten also developed a host of fine material for next year's squad.

Fulfilling the same duties as last year, head football coach and second team basketball coach, Coach Wooten deserves another O.K. for his efforts and accomplishments.
On a hot, sweltering day early in the season, mid sweat and dust, Anacortes "brought home the bacon" in the form of a score: 14-0 over Concrete. This was the first of many victories.

Highlighting the season was the Sea Hawks' victory over Arlington, 31-0.

In a muddle of water and mud the team bogged down and also bowed down to Bellingham in an overwhelming defeat of 34-0. The only other defeat the team suffered was from Marysville by a score of 6-0.

To end the season the Sea Hawks held the Sedro-Woolley Cubs, a team rated as the better team by far, to a 6-6 tie, thus earning the right to the title of "co-champions of the county."

LOWER PICTURE
Front row—Berentson, Smith, Rolph, Jarvis, Carter, Gilden, B. Burgess, Campbell, Maris, Noggle, E. Burgess, Cook, Flannigan, Tietjen.
Burgess, "Beef" Bill—Senior; played tackle; excellent on defensive; best blocker in the line; three-year letterman.

Flannigan, Gordon—Junior; hard-charging, aggressive tackle; out last part of season; co-captain for '40 season.

Noggle, Ray—Senior; shifty ball carrier; good passer; all-county '39; three-year letterman.

Rolph, Donald—Junior; fast; excellent ball carrier; good blocker. Will be potent man next year.

Johnson, Hilding—Sophomore; a hard-fighting tackle; always breaking the team plays; has two more years.

Gilden, Bob—Senior; good offensive end; fast on punts; three-year letterman.

Burgess, "Chick" Elmer—Senior; hard-sla.shing end; three years all-county; Captain in 1938; co-captain in 1939; three-year letterman.

Campbell, Fred—Senior; accurate center; great defensive man; two years all-county captain; three-year letterman.

Maris, Raymond—Senior; hard-charging fullback; all-county '39 season; played tackle part time; three-year letterman.

Burgett, Ralph—Junior; an accurate center; has one more year, and will be called upon for heavy duty.

Cook, Dick—Senior; all-county guard this year; good blocker; excellent on defensive; two-year letterman.

Bargewell, Darryl—Senior; good pass receiver; a dependable man on the field.

Batchelder, Dennis—Junior; husky guard; hard man to take out; effective on defensive.

Carter, Jack—Senior; good blocker; good field general; three-year letterman.

Jarvis, Cecil—Junior; fast and tough; good blocker; played guard and fullback; co-captain for '40 season.

• FIRST TEAM

Winning 3 of their 6 practice games, the Sea Hawks started an up and down season. They dropped their first county game to Mount Vernon by one point; then breezed on smoothly until their second meeting with the LaConner Braves, when they suffered their second league defeat. The pennant race was close, with Mount Vernon and Sedro-Woolley making it hard for the Hawks.

The Hawks lost their chance for the pennant when they went down in defeat at the hands of the Cubs, 25-27. Anacortes took the second place berth. With hopes high the Hawks went to the District, but suffered defeats to Bellingham and Snohomish, the latter being tournament host. The Hawks turned in a good season. Six graduates will be missed next year. These grads are Bill Burgess, Elmer Burgess, Ray Noggle, Ray Pinson, Bud Maris, and Orville Benson.

• SECOND TEAM

Playing good basketball and working desperately, the second team went through a fair season of play, finishing third place in its league race.

Losing many of their games by a few points, the Hawks managed to beat most of their opponents by large margins.

These second team players will be next year’s first team; thus you may well look forward to a fine group of basketballers. Members of the second team are Daniel Padgett, Barton Barber, Bob Separovich, Jerry Jurkovich, Beuhl Berentson, Ralph Burgett, and Charles Sherman.

Tournament Games at Snohomish

| A.H.S.—17 Bellingham—23 | Feb. 28—Snohomish |
| A.H.S.—32 Snohomish—42 | Feb. 29—Snohomish |
BASKETBALL
BASEBALL

With six veterans returning, the Sea Hawks' baseball team went through a season of good ball.

Veterans returning this year were Cecil Jarvis, pitcher; Bill Burgess, first baseman; Ray Noggle, shortstop; Ray Separovich, left field; Elmer Burgess, center field; and Ed Gilden, right field.

The team played a difficult schedule, and fought hard under Coach Boulton's guidance, to achieve the position it won in the county.

TRACK

Losing only two members, this year's track squad was extremely successful, even surpassing that of last year.

Meagher was the returning weight man taking the place of last year's team, which consisted of Goff and himself. Bassett, Rolph, and Demopolis were the outstanding runners coming back this year.

Several boys from the junior high school were with us this year, making a larger team and giving us added prospects for the coming seasons. Bart Barber took over the pole vaulting position. Ed Schwartz was a returning distance runner.

New equipment brought out added interest this season. Fairly successful was this year's results of a team well trained by Coach "Boots" Wooten.

TEENINS

With three members back from last year's squad, and five newcomers, the Anacortes tennis team was, for another season, too small for much competition.

Four seniors, seven juniors, and three sophomores entered in the play throughout the "up and down" season.

FOOTBALL ACTION SHOT

With the help of the play pictured, along with other plays, the Anacortes "Sea Hawks" were able to finish on the long end of a 31-0 score over the Arlington "Eagles" in the first of four games played on the local field.

Here, Noggle, right half, is about to toss one to end, Bob Gilden. The play was good for some twenty-two yards before Gilden was brought down. Maris, the fullback, is on the ground in the foreground of the backfield.

This game was the second of six victories for the Hawks, being bested only by the Marysville "Tomahawks" and the powerful Bellingham "Red Raider" elevens.

SOCcer

Although soccer speedball was the outstanding game during the soccer turnouts, schlaugh ball was an added feature. Soccer speedball turnouts took place in the early fall, beginning in September.

JOLLY BALL

Two tournaments were played by the jolly ball enthusiasts this year; in the first tournament the "T T" team was the winner. Winning from the other teams, the seniors "took" the second tournament. Each player on these high point teams received 25 extra points. Everyone earned 100 points if he had not missed more than one of the turnouts.

Two jolly ball teams in the first tournament participated in a jolly ball playday held in Burlington November 18.

Upper row—Vivian Mondhan, Annette Olin, Re-Vae Olson, Florence Campbell, Bette Brown, LaVerne Baer.

Lower row—Marjorie Brand, Phyllis Foster, Joan Turner, Marcia Kingsley, Virginia Finnson, Jean Pinkerton.

BASKETBALL

Winning nine games, losing one, and tying one, the senior girls came out on top in the high school basketball tournament. However, it proved to be a close battle with the juniors, who won eight games, lost two, and tied one.

For each game played 10 letter points were awarded each player. An additional 100 points were received by the girls who were able to pass the basketball action test.

Anacortes' Girls' Athletic club entertained girls belonging to athletic organizations from Burlington, LaConner, Mount Vernon and Sedro-Woolley, at a basketball playday January 20.

Third row—Gertrude Holtgeerts, Mary Stapp, Emily Antonovich.

Second row—Margaret Thomas, Vivian Mondhan.

Center—Annette Olin.

DANCING

Ball room and folk dancing were enjoyed by a large group of girls at the regular weekly turnouts. Fifty letter points were earned by each member of the club.

Girls in picture: Lorna Compton, Alice Rawhauser, Shirley Payne, Joan Turner, Vasilo Demopolis, Maxine Brown, Norma Benson, Marjorie Brand, Marjorie Charlot, Marcia Kingsley, Jean Pinkerton, Betty McGillivray, Rachel Riggs, Ila June Hughes, Margaret Moyer, Lois Anderson, LaVerne Baer, Ellen Cook, Margaret Polis, Jackie Richmond, and Miss Forcum.
You'd think I'd know by now that I'm not supposed to watch my feet!!

NINETEEN-FORTY BADMINTON

A ladder tournament caused excitement to reign at the badminton games. The two winning girls received the honor of having their names engraved on the badminton plaque.

Attending the badminton playday at LaConner were the eight top ranking players.

The four girls showing typical badminton strokes are Bette Brown, Gertrude Holtgeerts, Vivian Mondhan, and Florence Campbell.

TEENNIS

Tennis, the popular outdoor sport, each year brings out many players. The eight winning girls took part in the playday at LaConner.

Matches were played with Burlington and Mount Vernon this year.

BASEBALL

Girls' baseball had large turnouts this spring.

Upperclassmen played the lowerclassmen. The winning group attended the baseball playday held at LaConner.

Lower row:—Rosemary Downie, Ila June Hughes, Virginia Finnson, Charlotte Matthews, Florence Campbell, Vivian Mondhan, LaVerne Baer, Betty Wagner, Carol Hansen, Marjorie Charlot, and Marcia Kingsley.

It is the president of the Associated Students’ duty to preside over all assemblies and the Board of Control; he is held responsible, along with the assembly committee’s advisor, for the school’s pep assemblies and similar programs.

The vice president’s task is to take over the president’s duties when he is absent.

Recording all happenings at the Board of Control is the chief duty of the secretary. It is also her job to correspond with other schools, business firms, and the like, whenever necessary.

Presentation of bills against the Associated Students is made by the business manager at the Board of Control. She also records all financial business with the financial advisor’s aid.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Carleton Amsberry -------------- Chairman
Alice Johnson    Ellen Cook    Margaret Moyer

Miss Disher, Advisor

Throughout the year the assembly committee meets to arrange programs for the scheduled assembly days. It was thought that by forming such a committee those responsible for assembly programs would have their burden lightened. The committee also presents new ideas that can be worked into interesting program entertainment.

Dear Dean,

See, honey, now don't you ever forget our senior play and "Spanky" and everybody else in the cast (including "Bobbie") Remember that? It sure was fun!

Don't you feel funny at graduating, or do you? Boy, I think it's awful!

Here's see you around. Love, Spanky

Dramatics

Nineteen-Forty

Dick Cook—Trying to make a deal with an old Sultan for his harem. Just feature Dick sitting out in the sun, calling for wife number seventy-one.

Chester Smith—Inventor of that “super” club sandwich that hits a new high at 11 inches.

Orville Benson—Fingerprint expert on the Chicago police force. He’s the modern Sherlock Holmes.

Gordon Fountain—Expert ski-jumper who is now in the hospital because he went a little too far.

Mary Stapp—Blues singer at “The Ranch.”

Carmela Orlando—Invented the new speckled spaghetti that has caused so many people to go crazy—it’s so long and slippery they can’t get it wrapped around their forks.

Dean White—The originator of that popular new dance, “The Wigville Jiggle.”

Herman Trulson—Deep sea diver off the coast of Florida. He says he dropped his watch overboard there, once.

Roy Norman—High-salaried reporter on the “Tribune.” He writes that famous column, “Cape Sante Day by Day.”

Ferdie Eisenzimer—Sub, sub assistant to the third assistant gler at the Plywood factory. He’s stuck on the job.

Nora Cudmore—Famous contortionist who is now a cripple because she tied herself in a knot and forgot how to untie it.

Earl Blackinton—Newly-appointed admiral of the Queen Mary, because he proved that he could save time and money by taking out the engines and making the officers row.

Wade Seitz—Selling “Snazzy Shavers,” the new electric razors for men with tough black beards.

Norma Benson—Married to a tall, dark, drawling gentleman.

Ben Driftmier—Bee-keeper on Saddlebag Island. He wanted to get away from it all.

Emily Antonovich—Seen on Commercial pushing the only per-ambulator that will accommodate her sextuplets.

Gertrude Holtgeerts—We’ve just got a dispatch from Holland that she is trying to paddle up a canal in a wooden shoe.

Glenn Snider—His is the voice that charms you over the national hookup when he’s advertising “Oscar’s Oats.”

Lois Anderson—Her hair is still growing; she recently borrowed a fish net from a purse seiner to make a snood.

Bud Strom—Has finally had to put a blade in that razor. He says, “I find that it’s becoming difficult to wipe them off with a towel.”

Dear [Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my sincerest regards and to extend my heartfelt wishes for your continued success and good fortune.

I recently attended the conference in [Location], and I was delighted to see the progress that has been made in [Specific Area]. Your work and dedication are truly inspiring.

I understand that [Special Event] is around the corner, and I am excited to attend. I am particularly looking forward to [Specific Event Highlights].

Please convey my regards to [Related Parties].

Wishing you all the best,

Dear Ken,

Well here goes a little bit of nothing. I just can't write a full page, although I'll do my best.

We've had a lot of fun together these last two years. (I don't know about you but I knew I have.) I certainly hope we don't have to stop now just because you're graduating. Why do you want to graduate anyhow? Why don't you wait for me? I don't know what I'll do next year without you. I guess I'll have to find someone else to run around with, but there is no one who can fill the place you will leave behind. I wish this was my last year, so I could go to Seattle. Maybe I'd see you oftener.

Aren't you worried about your tests? I certainly am. Especially my Chemistry and Civics.

It'll don't forget where I live (1201-12th St.) and we sure and come to see me.

Love and lots of kisses,

[Signature]
