City of Anacortes Ribbon Cutting for the Repaired Washington Park Boat Launch

November 19, 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANACORTES, WA –The City of Anacortes will be holding a symbolic ribbon cutting for the repaired Washington Park boat launch. This outdoor ribbon cutting will be Friday, November 20th, 2:00PM at the Washington Park Boat Launch, 6300 Sunset Avenue, Anacortes, WA 98221.

Attendees will be: Mayor Laurie Gere; Senator Liz Lovelett; Dan Jankelson, TransPac Marinas President; Andy Culbertson, Owner & Operator of Culbertson Marine; Fred Buckenmeyer, City of Anacortes Public Works Director; Jonn Lunsford, City of Anacortes Parks and Recreation Director. Questions regarding the project and attendance at the ribbon cutting should be directed to Bob Vaux, Assistant Director, Anacortes Parks & Recreation at 360-588-8233.

The Washington Park Boat Launch was severely damaged by a storm in February 2019 and was returned to full service in late January 2020. All those in attendance played critical roles in getting the boat launch back into full service. The City of Anacortes thanks this great home town team.
